SENIOR CLASS PROPHECY

Hail! Hail! The gang's all here. We are attending the annual alumni banquet at Buckland High School auditorium. Everyone is discussing the events of the past 10 years, and we are hopping from table to table grasping bits of conversation.

Here sits MISS MARILYN DOERING talking with the former SHARON DEBELL about her life in the big city of Columbus. Marilyn is discussing with her the big times they had together.

What's this? Who's that dangling from the stage? We'll have to check on that. But now our proud master of ceremonies, MR. JIM JOHNS, is introducing the famed hillbilly singer of modern times, MR. RONNIE FARLEY, singing "Down by the Swingin Bridge," composed by PENNY FRY.

What's the confusion? Oh! it's the successful farmer CARL RAMGA. He just happened to spill his punch on Mrs. Richard McDonald, the former SUNDA TANGEMAN.

Oh, about that guy on the stage--wait--there seems to be some trouble at the next table. The former LINDA PLACE, now a well-known movie star, has just fainted. A mouse ran around the corner. It must have been too much for her.

The food is very tasty this evening. The program tells us it was donated by BILL KILL, who owns the largest super-market in Northwestern Ohio.

Here we find the distinguished, well-known hair designer, PAUL GRAY, better known as "Curly." He has with him this evening one of his most outstanding models, MISS MARILYN PLACE. Her beautiful hair style was especially designed for this very special occasion.

As we journey along to the next table, we find Mrs. Ned Doering, formally RUTH KENTNER, who is now teaching the first grade at Wapakoneta, discussing problems with MISS NANCY WHITE, now a well-known writer.

Oh, yes, that guy's still on the stage--Oh! it's LLOYD EPPERLY. No Wonder! He's talking to the former CAROL SUNDERLAND, now married and the mother of two lovely children. Lloyd always was a lady's man.

I guess that's all of the evesdropping we can do, so we'll close this merry sneak interview. The master of ceremonies is now trying to quiet the audience, but you can be sure that with the Seniors of 1960, there will never be a dull moment.

EDITORIAL

The Senior Class of 1960 wishes to present to you the thirty-first edition of "White-feather." Through publication of this yearbook, we seniors have attempted to show you a pictorially-accurate record of activities and classes held throughout the past year.

As seniors, we must reflect upon the persons who deserve our sincere thanks . . .

Our parents for the devotion they have shown to us and for the assistance they have given us during all our young lives;

Buckland School teachers for the work and help given to us during our decade-plus-two years of schooling;

Underclassmen for cooperation rendered and for happy memories they have given us to carry with us as we go our separate ways of life;

And, finally, to all purchasers of this literary endeavor of our Class of 1960 - an endeavor we hope all readers will cherish always as a tribute to school days of 1959-60.

We extend our thanks and appreciation to merchants who have advertised in our yearbook.
